

Taft Attacks Bryan's Record

Can Anything be Expected From Him But What is Based on His Eloquence and Adroitness?

PREDICTIONS UNFULFILLED.

His Character Makes Him an Unsafe Man With Whom to Try Experiments in Government.

Cincinnati, Sept. 22.—The real activities of the campaign have begun for William H. Taft, the Republican presidential candidate. Three political addresses were the demands upon him today. Early tomorrow he will begin his journey of speech-making through the west.

Not since the candidate was notified officially of his nomination has the city of Cincinnati been so thoroughly awake politically as tonight, when marching clubs from Indianapolis, Columbus, Hamilton and other places left the blaze of torch and the blare of trumpet as the escort to the candidate, was the feature of the rally of the National League of Republican clubs at Music hall.

At noon Mr. Taft addressed the delegates to the national convention of negro Baptists, who had come here from Lexington, Ky., for the purpose. Previous to this he looked in upon the work of the convention of the National League of Republican clubs and at once was introduced for a speech. In these two efforts the candidate was brief. His expression of sympathy for the struggles of the negro race elicited warm applause from the Baptist ministers, who met the candidate at the Clinton hotel, and his words to the convention were warmly received.

It was tonight, however, that Mr. Taft made his strongest effort. After reviewing the record of the Republican party as to the past and future, and, finally, he depicted his idea of the Democratic policy of "promise," and then devoted himself to an analysis of Mr. Bryan.

The music hall, the largest assembly hall in the city, was crowded. GODS FOR BRYAN. The Bryan feature of Mr. Taft's speech came at the conclusion of a 10,000-word address, in which the accomplishments and purposes of the Republican party were contrasted with what the speaker termed the Democratic record of opposition and promise. "Turning now to the picture," said Mr. Taft, after his review of the issues, "what is it that we have to expect from Mr. Bryan? Have we anything to expect that what he promises? Have we anything to expect but a man based upon his eloquence and his adroitness as a public critic? Has he ever given any practical demonstration of his ability to meet and solve the problems of the country? Has he ever done anything but formulate propositions in his closet of an utterly impracticable character, largely as a view of attracting votes by their plausibility and very little with a view of their operation? By their fruits ye shall know them. What is the history of Mr. Bryan? It is, from beginning to end, a record of failures in public questions."

Mr. Taft reviewed Mr. Bryan's career as a public man, and continued: "In 1896 Mr. Bryan went around the world and on his return was heralded with the statement that in his visit around the world he had gained information and knowledge that he had become sane and sane, that he was a conservative, and all the Democratic party awaited his coming with great interest. Immediately upon his arrival he dispelled this erroneous impression by declaring that he was convinced that the only solution of the national question ultimately would be government ownership. He had previously declared in favor of national initiative and referendum and also in favor of the election of federal judges. All these most radical propositions have now been excluded from the Democratic platform. They do not meet such popular approval as to justify their being brought forward as a means of acquiring office in this campaign, but they show the instability and variability of his views, and they justify the fear that so many people of this country have in respect to the danger to which the public weal may be exposed should he be put at the helm."

UNFULFILLED PROPHECIES. "And now, with the record of

Common Sense And a Tablet

Do Away With Dyspepsia, Stomach Trouble and Make Meals a Pleasure.

When your stomach goes on a strike and meetings of indigestion are held all over your body, then it is that you should sit up and take notice. It is clearly and only a question of common sense—this thing called dyspepsia. Take away, by abuse, over eating, excesses and high living, the things which the stomach needs and you have dyspepsia and indigestion; then other maladies follow these—this is common sense.

The stomach is willing enough but it won't let it do its work. You won't let it do its work. You won't let it do its work. You won't let it do its work.

Give back these materials and dyspepsia and indigestion flee and the whole machinery of man begins slowly to move and do its work.

What the stomach needs is nerve force, fluids for its digestive glands, nourishment and powers. All these necessities it takes from the blood. If dyspepsia gives nothing to the blood, the blood gives nothing to the stomach. This is common sense also, pure, simple and unvarnished.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are common sense pressed by high power into tablets. In these tablets are powerful essences which go into the stomach, do the work for the stomach quickly and well. Every drug store carries them. 50 cents per package. Send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free. Address P. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Building Marshall, Mich.

promises and prophecies unfulfilled for a period of 12 years, with this record of failure for an issue upon which to achieve the presidency, with this record of repudiation, of negation and of running away from national responsibilities, Mr. Bryan comes forward and asks that the people now give him an opportunity to put into operation new reforms in respect to trust and in respect to guaranty of bank deposits, wholly untried, wholly theoretical, and, on their face, bearing evidence of their impracticability and of having been devised by the brain of one looking for plausible arguments rather than real reforms. He only in a qualified way approved the postal savings bank recommended by the Republican platform, which is a tried and proved means of encouraging the wage earner and small farmer to make deposits in a bank absolutely secure; but much prefers a system which takes a man's money to pay another man's default, and which, instead of depositing in a bank, invests in a system, will break it down by destroying the value of the banking character and experience and capital, and in the end, will leave the people and speculative bankers without character or capital.

"The record of Mr. Bryan, and his character, as it is understood by a 12 years' acquaintance with him, have impressed the business community of this country and those whose judgment determines whether or not capital shall be invested in him, is not a safe man with whom to try experiments in government; that he loves financial theories that are full of sophistry and are impracticable, that he advances propositions with but little sense of respect as to how they may be carried out in practice, and that he gives but little attention to the welfare of the conservative business community in suggestions of reform. Certainly his record justifies this judgment of him by the business men. If he were to be elected, unquestionably because of his record, however much now he may seek to pose as a conservative—because of his record, because of the failure of theories which he has proposed for the last 12 years, his election will mean a paralysis of business, and we should have a recurrence of the disastrous conditions of the last Democratic administration."

NOTE BROKER ARRESTED.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—John Simmons, said to be a note broker, was arrested here today in connection, it is alleged, with a $25,000 bank robbery at Niles. He declared that his actions were not connected with the robbery, made at the instance of Wade A. Taylor, president of the institution that was robbed.

Then each separate berry is flaked as thin as paper, and toasted in a heat of 400 degrees. In a flake, that fierce heat can attack every atom. The particles are separated so the digestive juices can get to them.

In any other form that is out of the question. In most forms of whole wheat not one-half will digest. That is why our process requires 90 minutes. That is why our wheat is flaked. The food value in wheat is valueless to you unless it is utilized. We prepare the wheat so that every bite is digestible.

We take the finest whole wheat and steam-cook it for six hours. Then we cure it for days—a partial digestive process.

The verdict of the ages is that whole wheat is the premier food of the world.

In no other grain are all the food elements stored in such balanced form. So wheat can best do whatever food can accomplish. Anything else—however good it may be—will do less.

But wheat—to be available—must be wholly digestible. That is the main reason for Mapl-Flake.

We take the finest whole wheat and steam-cook it for six hours. Then we cure it for days—a partial digestive process.

Serve it once and you will serve it always—as a million homes are doing. You will not be content with a half food when you know what a whole food means. Please order a package and see.

TREATIES WITH LABOR OFFICIALS

J. W. Van Cleave of Manufacturers' Association Says Prest. Roosevelt Made Them.

VICTIM OF CONFIDENCE GAME.

Drift of Most Unions is Strongly Toward the Debs and Haywood Follies.

St. Louis, Sept. 22.—J. W. Van Cleave, president of the National Manufacturers' association, in a speech tonight at the banquet of the Missouri Manufacturers' association at the Southern hotel, said that the American Federation of Labor played a confidence game on President Roosevelt and other party leaders at Washington last winter.

"We saw in Washington," said Mr. Van Cleave, "party leaders and civic bodies invite representatives of the American Federation of Labor into their courts and ask them what legislation they wanted. We saw the president of the United States make intimacies with those labor officials with almost as much formality as he would with diplomatic representatives of Great Britain, Germany or any other great power. What enabled the federation to play this confidence game on the party leaders and the president? Organization."

Mr. Van Cleave pointed out that employees organize in all our factories, but we must insist upon the open shop. "The labor societies have made union among us imperative and at the same time have shown that union can accomplish. We must get together so we can wield an influence to elect courageous and special spirit to our quarters, and we must get them while in office in enforcing the statutes and the ordinances against law-breakers of all sorts."

How, then, did the federation's politicians in coercing the Republican party in the Chicago convention in June from putting their anti-union recommendation in the platform? In response to our appeal 20,000 telegrams of protest deluged the resolutions committee, and the convention leaders and the labor unions' anti-American plot was foiled. Socialism is absorbing unionism. The drift of most of the unions is strongly toward the Debs and Haywood follies. Some of the unions have embraced these follies already. Every year the Socialists make a strong light to control the American Federation of Labor. "They are by far the best organized, the most aggressive and most resourceful of its members. The tendency of the ignorant and arrogant persons who are the head of the federation renders it inevitable that the Socialists will get control of the league in the end."

NEGRO LYNCHED.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 22.—According to reports received in this city today George Thomas, the negro who shot Sheriff Beard at Port Gaines, Ga., yesterday, was lynched by a mob in the part of the Georgia railroad station soon after the shooting. First reports said Thomas was killed by the sheriff. Doctors report there is hope of saving the life.

FORT YATES CEMETERY

Bodies of Famous Indians, Officers and Soldiers, Together With Headstones, to be Transferred to Iowa.

Eureka, S. D., Sept. 22.—About the middle of October the will depart from Eureka, just over the line in North Dakota, the most remarkable railroad shipment ever made. It will consist of the remains and headstones of all the officers, enlisted men, civilians and famous Indians buried at the old post of Fort Yates, now abandoned by the government. Among the bodies to be shipped is that of Sitting Bull, the famous chief who defeated General Custer.

George P. Belden, a noted Indian scout and many others, equally well known throughout the Dakotas, were buried at Fort Yates. All the bodies will be taken to the old post of Fort Yates, now abandoned by the government.

BRYAN'S ROOSTER. It Crows Every Time It is Asked About The Maine Election.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 22.—William J. Bryan is having fun with the miniature rooster which William O. Ferguson, of Evansville, gave him when he was in this city several weeks ago. Mr. Ferguson received a letter from Mr. Bryan today thanking him for the gift. It included some of the details of the enjoyment on the train from Evansville to New York. The rooster reads as follows: "Dear Mr. Ferguson: I thank you for the rooster which you presented. We are having a good deal of fun with it. We are carrying it in our private car, and whenever a visitor comes in, we have the visitor ask the rooster if he heard of the Maine election, and the rooster crows forward and crows. It is as good as a 'W. J. BRYAN.'"

PRESIDENT THINKS HE'S HIT 'EM PRETTY HARD.

Washington, Sept. 22.—President Roosevelt returned to Washington from Oyster Bay at 5:50 o'clock this afternoon. The special train bearing the presidential party was met at the station by many officials, including members of the cabinet, army and navy officers and others. The president was the picture of health and vigor as he alighted. He was attired in a frock coat, dark gray trousers, and black slouch hat. His bronzed face beamed with delight as he gave the hearty handshake and the characteristic word of greeting to those who surrounded him. Secretaries Wright, Metcalf, Straus, Wilson and Postmaster General Meyer formed the center of the group.

"That was a hot shot this morning," said Mr. Von Meyer, alluding to the president's letter on the candidacy of Mr. Taft. "I think we've been hitting them hard," responded Mr. Roosevelt laughingly.

GERMANY'S REPLY TO FRANCO-SPANISH NOTE.

Berlin, Sept. 22.—Germany's reply to the Franco-Spanish note on Morocco was delivered this evening. The number of men most conciliatory, but Germany makes the point plain that she cannot permit any power to occupy an extraordinary position in relation to the Morocco d'Hyeres. A semi-official communication issued today says that France and Spain have notified Germany that they have no intention of departing from the spirit of the Algeiras act in laying down the position of the powers.

BIG NAVAL GUN EXPLODES

Killing Thirteen Men on French Armored Cruiser La Touche Treville And Wrecking Turret.

Toulon, France, Sept. 22.—During gunnery drill today one of the big turret guns on the French armored cruiser La Touche Treville exploded with terrific violence, completely wrecking the entire gun crew of 13 men. A number of men were seriously injured, some of them probably fatally. The accident was similar to that aboard the gunnery schoolship Turenne, off La Rochelle, Aug. 12 last, when, by the bursting of the breach of one of the guns, six men were killed and 18 injured. The drill today had been proceeding for a considerable time without warning, the whole turret seemed to blow out. Dismembered bodies were thrown in all directions and several of them were hurled into the sea through the great breach caused by the explosion.

The spectacle was horrible, the dead and wounded, together with shattered arms and legs, littering the decks. A call to quarters was sounded and as speedily as possible the wounded were carried forward. The gun that exploded was 7.6 inches bore, of which the cruiser carried two. Happening so soon after the accident on the Turenne, the explosion today has caused a sensation in naval circles, and doubtless will lead to a more rigid inspection of the La Touche Treville. The cruiser carried a complement of 307 men.

FATAL FIGHT BETWEEN RANCHERS AND HORSE THIEF

Great Falls, Mont., Sept. 22.—Word has been received here of a battle between two ranchers and a horse thief. The sheriff of Gallatin county word that a man wanted in Gallatin county was near Dorsey, and he telephoned a rancher to try and locate him. The rancher got a neighbor to help him and they soon located the thief. Riding past him and then wheeling, they ordered the man to throw up his hands. The thief opened fire, wounding one of his pursuers, while the other hit the thief. The latter started into the timber, and it was later found that he had spent some time in a deserted cabin. He had dropped his gun and cartridge belt, the latter showing a bullet hole through it. From the amount of blood on the ground it was evident that he had lost a good deal and it is regarded as likely that he was fatally wounded. The rancher is not expected to live.

Whitney's History of Utah at Half Price.

The Deseret News takes pleasure in announcing that it has secured the sole rights to the HISTORY OF UTAH, by Orson F. Whitney, originally published by the George Q. Cannon & Sons Co.

This work, which was begun in 1890, and printed in three large volumes (the fourth volume issued being biographical, and not a part of the direct history of Utah), is one of the largest and most exhaustive histories ever compiled of any western state. The three volumes bring the history of the state from the foundation down to the year 1890, at the time of the issuance of the manifesto, and includes the history of the Church from its organization in New York. The first ten chapters are devoted to this subject.

In the three volumes are included 235 full page steel plates, mostly portraits of leading figures in the history of the State, originally obtained at a cost of many thousands of dollars. The volumes each contain approximately 800 pages, a total of 2,351 pages in the three. The binding is quarto size, full morocco with gilt edges, no other style of binding being issued.

The three volumes were originally sold at $30.00, and several thousand sets were placed throughout the state at that figure. The "News" having obtained the unsold copies of the edition, will place them on the market at the coming October Conference and sell to the first comers at HALF THE ORIGINAL PRICE, OR $15.00 FOR THE THREE VOLUMES. No single volumes will be sold. Without doubt many libraries throughout the country will avail themselves of this rare opportunity, and Utah people who desire to add this work to their libraries are urged to call at the Deseret News book store and inspect the work during Conference.

The low price at which this rare work is offered will undoubtedly exhaust the edition in a short time. The work will then be out of PRINT, so that every book-lover should avail himself of this last chance.

The original subscribers, who already have the first three volumes of the History of Utah are entitled to the fourth volume (containing individual biographies) free, by addressing George Q. Cannon & Sons Association.

The "News" has no interest in the fourth volume, the work being complete as above stated, in the three volumes, now offered at $15.00.
